Neither this Request for Special Notice nor any subsequent appearance, pleading, claim, proof of claim, document, suit, motion nor any other writing or conduct, shall constitute a waiver of Tri-State's:

- Right to have any and all final orders in any and all non-core matters entered only after de novo review by a United States District Court Judge;
- Right to trial by jury in any proceeding as to any and all matters so triable herein, whether or not the same be designated legal or private rights, or in any case, controversy or proceeding related hereto, notwithstanding the designation vel non of such matters as "core proceedings" pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(H), and whether such jury trial right is pursuant to statute or the United States Constitution;
- Right to have the reference of this matter withdrawn by the United States District Court in any matter or proceeding subject to mandatory or discretionary withdrawal; and
- Other rights, claims, actions, defenses, setoffs, recoupments or other matters to which this party is entitled under any agreements or at law or in equity or under the United States Constitution.

All of the above rights are expressly reserved and preserved by Tri-State without exception and with no purpose of confessing or conceding jurisdiction in any way by this filing or by any other participation in these matters.
